at each other's needs. And I would say to Omaha and Lincoln particularly, those rural people out there have probably accommodated you about as much as anything over the last many years, and I would hope that Omaha and Lincoln, even though they might have deep reservations and even though they might ultimately decide to oppose this, would at least give us from the rural areas who are trying to represent a particular constituency the opportunity to have this out here to discuss.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Now we will proceed to a vote on the measure and a machine vote has been requested by Senator Haberman. All those in favor of raising the bill from the committee vote aye, opposed vote no. Thirty votes are required. I am informed that there are six members excused. We will stay here all day until we get 43. Have you all voted? The Clerk will record the vote.

CLERK: 33 ayes, 8 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to raise the bill.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries. The bill is raised from the committee to the floor of the Legislature. We go to Final Reading. Senator Haberman, did you wish to be recognized? The Call is raised. It is three minutes to ten and I believe the Governor should be due here soon, and I have a committee to appoint who will escort the Governor if that is the wish of the Speaker that the Chair may assume that a motion has been made, and the Chair now appoints these following Senators to escort the Governor to the Chamber: Senators Don Eret, Steve Wiitala, Wiley Remmers, John DeCamp and Pat Morehead. Senators Eret, Wiitala, Remmers, DeCamp and Morehead, please go to the Governor's chambers and escort him to the legislative Chamber. The House will be at Ease until the escort committee arrives.

EASE

While we are waiting for the escort committee to bring the Governor to the Chamber, the Chair would like to announce that guests of Senator Rod Johnson in the balcony area this morning are 24 Seniors from Palmer High School in Palmer, Nebraska, with Mr. Kary Hoins and Mr. Dave Tickner. Welcome to the Legislature. (Microphone not activated)....Morehead, Wiitala, Remmers, DeCamp and Eret. The Chair recognizes the Sergeant at Arms and asks for order in the Chamber, please. Mr. Sergeant at Arms.
